Introduction

South Dublin Allotments Association (SDAA) is a voluntary association for all those who support allotments in South Dublin County.

Membership is open to all people who are gardening enthusiasts, allotment holders on SDCC sites, those individuals on waiting lists for a site or any other persons who are committed to and interested in allotments.

SDAA's objectives are:

- To represent the views and interests of allotment holders at South Dublin County Council (SDCC) allotment sites.
- To campaign for more allotment sites in local communities.
- To promote allotment gardening as a healthy and sustainable activity.
- To cooperate with other bodies interested in promoting allotments.

Benefits of Membership

- Participation in the Association by becoming a member of the committee or volunteering in some other capacity.
- Tri-annual newsletter for all members.
- Representation by committee to SDCC on behalf of members concerning allotment issues.
- Support and exchange of information, ideas and materials with fellow allotmenters.
- Participation in social events, visits, educational trips and talks.
- Attendance at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) where the new officers and committee are elected. The AGM is usually held in September.

For all things produced in a garden, whether of salads or fruits, a poor man will eat better than a rich man that has none.

J. C. Loudoun

We come from the earth, we return to the earth, and in between we garden.
