CELEBRATING 60 YEARS IN CORK

Chers Amis, Dear Friends, A Chaoin Cairde,

2007 will mark a very important year in the history of this Alliance Française, as we celebrate 60 years of teaching French and promoting the French culture here in Cork. Founded in October 1947, Alliance Française de Cork is proud to be part of a worldwide network of over 1000 Alliances in 135 countries. The organization was established in Paris in 1883 and is one of the largest educational bodies in the world.

Alliance Française has a very exciting year-long cultural programme in place to celebrate this important moment in our history.

Let's further strengthen the long established and cherished cultural Franco-Irish links throughout this year : visit our gallery and admire the works of very fine French and Irish Artists. Do not miss the highlight of our year's celebrations - the 18th Cork French Film Festival 1st - 9th March at the Gate cinema and Triskel, bringing you such cinematic delights as Jean Cocteau's La belle et la Bête and Paris, je t'aime produced by Claudie Ossard.

Let's share together our black-tie Gala evening on Saturday 13th October 2007 at the Imperial Hotel where Alliance Française de Cork first opened its doors!

Du fond du Coeur nous vous souhaitons une merveilleux année 2007 franco irlandaise! Blián nua fé mhaise agaibh!

A bientôt!

Nora Callanan, President

Hélène Duquin, Director

- Come and meet our team at the Alliance Française stand from 5.30pm to 8.30pm

2. We offer short oral assessments in order to advise which course and level would suit you best. Adult complete beginners, primary and secondary school students do not need an assessment. Assessments are entirely for your benefit and there is no obligation to book a course.

3. Remember to avail of our Early Booking Discount for term classes by 13th January 2007 for the Spring Term and 8th September 2007 for the Autumn Term.

4. Send us your enrolment form together with your payment, or come during office hours. Places are on a first-come, first-served basis and cannot be reserved without full payment.

5. If you are unsure about your level after your first class of the Autumn or Spring terms, please discuss it with your tutor, or the director, within the first two weeks of term. Any change of course requested by students can only take place before Friday 5th October 2007 for the Autumn term, or Friday 9th February 2007 for the Spring term. Please note: changes which are not confirmed with the director will not be accepted and class lists will be final on the above mentioned dates.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Places are on a first-come, first-served basis and cannot be reserved without full payment. To avoid disappointment, please ensure we receive your full enrolment well in advance. Please note that a minimum of students is required to open a course.
2. We welcome payment by credit card (Visa, MasterCard), debit card (Laser), cheque or cash. Please note that cash and laser payments can only be accepted during office hours.
3. No new enrolments will be accepted after the 2nd week of term for the Spring and Autumn Terms.
4. Fees are exclusive of course books. You can purchase your books in our office during office hours.
5. Refund Policy:
  - We regret that fees are not refundable or transferable once the course has started.
  - We reserve the right to add or cancel classes subject to demand, and to return applications at our discretion. Fees will be refunded by cheque if a course is cancelled or closed by us. Please allow a few weeks for this to be processed.
  - No partial refund can be granted for classes not attended. For the comfort of all participants, it is not possible for students to attend an alternative class to compensate for any missed lessons.
6. Insurance: Alliance Française wishes to inform the parents of school students enrolled in our courses that their children are covered under our Public Liability insurance while on our premises during the time scheduled for their course. However, they are not covered if they leave the premises during this period.
7. Library Fines: In an attempt to generate as much choice as possible for all members, a daily fine of €2 will be charged for each Video/DVD overdue. Monies accrued from fines will be used to increase stock. If the Video/DVD is lost, the member is liable for replacement costs (€50 per item including viewing rights).
8. Information is valid at the time of print. Check your course details with the office in the unlikely event of a misprint.
