Terms and conditions – please read carefully:

1. Places are on a first-come, first-served basis and cannot be reserved without full payment. To avoid disappointment, please ensure we receive your full enrolment fee well in advance. Please note that a minimum of students is required to open a course
2. We welcome payment by credit card (Visa, MasterCard, debit card (Laser), cheque or cash. Please note that cash and laser payments can only be accepted in the office during office hours.
3. No new enrolments may be accepted after the 2nd week of term.
4. Fees are exclusive of course books. You can purchase your books in the office during office hours
5. Refund policy:
 - We regret that fees are not refundable or transferable once the course has started
 - We reserve the right to add or cancel classes subject to demand, and to return applications at our discretion. In the event of a cancellation, we will endeavour to provide an alternative class-option for students as soon as possible. If such an alternative is not possible, fees will be refunded by us. Please allow a few weeks for this to be processed.
 - No partial refund can be granted for classes not attended. For the comfort of all participants, it is not possible for students to attend an alternative class to compensate for any missed lessons.
 - Students who have paid the full course fee must notify the Alliance before the course commencement date that they do not intend to take up the place reserved. Fees minus an administration fee of €50 will be transferred to the following term or refunded. Application for such refunds should be made to the Director in writing.
 - Students who have already paid the full course fee must notify the director within two weeks following the course commencement date that they do not intend to take up the place reserved. Half of the course fee will be transferred to the following term or refunded.
 - In exceptional cases of hardship (e.g. medical, bereavement), vs for refunds of fees outside the limits set out above may be considered, but such requests should be made in writing to the Director together with supporting documentation.
