PASSION (PALM) SUNDAY

5 APRIL 2009.

KILLASSER/CALLOW PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MISSION STATEMENT

'We seek to become a more welcoming community where God's message of faith, hope and love is experienced'

THOSE PRECEEDING HIM AS WELL AS THOSE FOLLOWING KEPT CRYING OUT: 'HOSANNA.'

As I envisioned the original Palm Sunday procession, Jesus on a donkey seems strange. Had I been directing this liturgical procession I would have chosen a white stallion. Yet the donkey fits the humble stance of this Servant Leader, so different from the great ones of this earth.

We broke off branches from the palm trees, waving them with loving excitement proclaiming him our King. A spirit of praise pervaded the atmosphere. Love ran wild. Well! We thought it was love!

Looking back on all of this now that the mood had changed for the Good Friday procession I wonder, what happened? How could those who were waving palm branches with such devotion slink into the crowd as silent spectators on Good Friday? How could their joy become indifference, fear, betrayal and even hate?

As a twenty-first century person reflecting on this I, too, find myself wondering about the processions in my life that begin with joyful presence, yet end with unconscious living. In my daily communion procession to receive the Bread of Life I often experience a contemplative stirring. Yet as my procession through the day begins my fervour falls away.

'Has something happened to that first movement of the Spirit in my life? What happened between Palm Sunday and Good Friday?'
