THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

6 JANUARY 2008.

KILLASSER/CALLOW PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MISSION STATEMENT

'We seek to become a more welcoming community where God's message of faith, hope and love is experienced'

ALL KINDS OF EVERYTHING.

Someone once described love as the ability to see butterflies in caterpillars. I think that holds true for faith too. The Feast we celebrate today, the Epiphany, is a good example of that.

Epiphany, a strange sounding word of Greek origin, simply means seeing something, or someone, more clearly than ever before. It is sudden, and it takes your breath away. Something we are very familiar with we suddenly discover has more to it than we thought. Someone we thought we knew inside out suddenly gob-smacks us into seeing that we can't take her or him or anyone else for granted ever. Mystery rules, OK! That's Epiphany. We need constant contact with mystery so life's riches isn't diluted.

After their vision, the three wise men in today's Gospel Reading have their dream. It warns them to avoid Herod. Some people can't cope with mystery. Their attitude is all wrong, their values are all wrong, they are all wrong. As the wise men avoided Herod, so too must we, with whatever name or in whatever form he may appear. He's the one who tramples on caterpillars and thinks butterflies are for the birds. Clearly, besides mystery we also need our dreams.

(Fr. Tom Cahill - Intercom - December/January 2007/2008)

Some grant aid has been sanctioned by IRD Kiltimagh and the local County Councillors. We thank them for their support.

It is available at the Church Doors at all the Masses this weekend 5th / 6th January. That is a bigger challenge, but I am confident that we can take it on together and move forward step by step.

As the questionnaires were not signed, the Pastoral Council would appreciate very much if those people who wish to become involved would contact any member of the Pastoral Council. New people are always needed and are most welcome.

A CLUSTER STEERING COMMITTEE MEETING was held in the Fr. Peyton Centre Attymass on Thursday night 22nd November.
