KILLASSER/CALLOW PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MISSION STATEMENT

'We seek to become a more welcoming community where God's message of faith, hope and love is experienced'

PEACE COMES DROPPING SLOW.

A dust-up in the First Reading about what rules and regulations from Jewish law would be imposed on new (Gentile) Christians who were not Jewish. It all makes a point: this debate occurred and its resolution was reached in order to overcome disturbance of the peace of mind of members of the Church.

Peace - that most prized and scarce of realities. A peace it does seem at times that the world cannot give - only God can. And many are the disturbances of life. Being upset, disappointed, jealous, angry or lonely. Feeling a lack of confidence, or a lack of something can make us greedy, possessive, even lustful. We live in a culture of success, where everything is built on the idea of ascent, with everything on the rise be they prices or expectation. It's a world where you fix and control. In that culture ironically most of the learning is done in the darker emotions. After the age of 30 everything worth learning comes from the experience of failure, disappointment, humiliation, loneliness and loss. At such times, we would do well to pray to the Holy Spirit; 'Peace I leave with you, my own peace I give you, a peace the world cannot give, this is my gift to you.' It will keep us calm and at peace.

(Fr. Tom Cox - Intercom - May 2007)

AN OPEN PUBLIC MEETING will be held at Killasser Church on Monday evening 14th May at 8.30 p.m. to discuss the above suggestion of upgrading the grounds and all other items that need to be attended to. Hundreds of names and dates of death of people from the area are inscribed on slabs of marble attached to the walls of the Church. The road leading into the church and cemetery has been upgraded. Just outside the entrance to the cemetery, a beautiful peace garden has been created. It is a project very well carried out. Worth visiting.

A KILLASSER/CALLOW PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING will be held in Callow Church on Wednesday evening next 16th May at 8.30 p.m. All members are invited to attend. Two new members are still needed so that four people of the original committee can step down after two years to comply with the constitution of the Pastoral Council. Preferably two men are needed to keep the gender balance as it should be. After two more years, it should be a totally different committee than started out. This is the objective, so that it cannot become an elite group. The challenge is to get people who are willing to step out, give some of their time and talent to the community. Sitting on the fence is not really an option.
