THE TRIUMPH OF THE CROSS

14 SEPTEMBER 2008.

KILLASSER/CALLOW PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MISSION STATEMENT

'We seek to become a more welcoming community where God's message of faith, hope and love is experienced'

AT CROSS PURPOSES.

If Jesus had been hanged instead of crucified would we be celebrating the Triumph of the Rope? No irreverence is intended here. It is a serious question. The symbolism of hanging from a rope would not be as strong, nor the image as powerful, as that of an outstretched man, naked, pinned in agony to a cross. Yet redemption would just as surely have been achieved. The means of death was not important. The fact of death was.

While today's feast focuses on the symbol, the external sign, we cannot be blind to what really counted; Jesus' love for his Father. Concentrating on, and glorifying the cross can be dangerous, even unchristian. It can give the impression that the pain is all-important, not the love that overcomes the pain.

Had Jesus not had to die for what he said and did would he still be Saviour? An unqualified yes to that! If it was his love that brought salvation, then the suffering was tragically unnecessary. But because of our sorry state, it was inevitable.

That's why today's Gospel reading tells us that the Father sent his Son into this world, not to condemn it but to save it. That mission is what triumphed, not the cross. Without the love in his heart Jesus would not have had his cross to bear. He would not have had to face the enemy to the bitter end - and he would not have been a man to take seriously.
