KILLASSER/CALLOW PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MISSION STATEMENT

'We seek to become a more welcoming community where God's message of faith, hope and love is experienced'

GO AND TELL!

In a youthful, uppity manner many years ago I remarked at an inter-faith dialogue meeting in Selly Oaks, Birmingham, England, that Jesus wasn't crucified because he dialogued. That remark - no less incisive for being rather obvious - didn't go down too well. While useful as a getting-to-know-you exercise, thereby improving relations between different faith traditions, dialogue is not the preferred option for Christian missionary activity. It may be a necessary first step in a missionary approach, but it can hardly be considered the only or the final one. Were Jesus sending out his disciples on mission today would he tell them to dialogue instead of to teach? Personally, I doubt it. But then I don't have a hot line to God.

Missionaries are people called to tell. They tell people basically two things; God has created them for a purpose, and, by following Jesus, they fulfil that purpose most assuredly. In telling this good news, missionaries do more than just talk. They present truth in various ways but always with humility; they meet weakness with understanding, and they confront evil with firmness. They respect diversity; they promote growth both individually and collectively; and, they bear witness to what they say.

Put that way it doesn't really matter where you are; at home, or away, at work, or at play. If you defend truth, allow for weakness, oppose evil, respect others, promote growth and live honestly - and do so because you love God, then you are a missionary.

asked. Do not be surprised if you are and you can also volunteer. You can contact Fr. O'Mahony or any member of the Parish Pastoral Council. Some of the existing members are anxious to step down after many years of service which they should be able to do with dignity. Ministries always need to be renewed by new Members. Sincere thanks to those who attended on Tuesday evening last and those who are willing to be there on Tuesday next having agreed to become Ministers of the Eucharist in the last few days.

NEW MEMBERS FOR THE PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL are also required at the present time for the year ahead. Each year four members have to step down and be replaced by four new members according to our constitution and the guidelines for Parish Pastoral Councils. This means that the Pastoral Council will continue to be renewed and, hopefully, as representative as possible. Each year ten meetings are held with a break for July and August. Do think about it.

KILLASSER NATIONAL SCHOOL PLAYGROUND IMPROVEMENTS: It was decided over a week ago to proceed with the improvement of the school grounds at Killasser National School. This work will involve new drainage and new tarmac so that the children can play in cleaner and better conditions. It is very important that they would have facilities on a par with every other school. At the present time there are no Department of Education Grants available. This means that money has to be borrowed and some fundraising will have to be undertaken to cover the repayments. Work will begin on this project next weekend and most of it will be carried out during the mid-term break. The first Fundraiser will be a Sponsored Walk on Monday 27th October, commencing at 11 a.m. from Killasser Community Centre. Refreshments will be served at the Community Centre after the walk. All support will be much appreciated. More news as time goes by.

THE IRISH SOCIETY FOR AUTISM CHURCH GATE COLLECTION will be taken up before all Masses this weekend.

SMALL COIN COLLECTION: At all Masses over the next two weekends, there will be buckets at the church doors for all that loose change which you might wish to donate to our twin diocese of Meki in Ethiopia. So please search the purses and pockets, the jugs and the jars for all those 1, 2, 5, 10 cent coins and remember to bring them with you. Last year this collection netted almost €50 which is quite a substantial sum to a very poor African Diocese.

ROSCOMMON CHAMBER CHOIR: It is with great excitement that a new group given the name 'Roscommon Chamber Choir' will be set up this year. It is hoped that the group will consist of approximately twenty four of the finest voices within the County of Roscommon and its surrounding counties. The group will have many challenges and is set up primarily as a competition choir to compete in various choral competitions both nationally and internationally. However, the first project for this new talented bunch of singers is to record a Christmas CD in November ready for release in December 2008. The 'Roscommon Chamber Choir' will rehearse every Wednesday in Roscommon Town, commencing in September/October. Applicants between the ages of 18 and 30 are now being sought to audition. You can express your interest by contacting Derek on 086-3052204 or by e-mail roscommonchamberchoir@yahoo.com.

A special candle will be lit for every person who died in the parish during the past year since 1st November 2007. A candle will also be lit for those natives of the parish who died elsewhere during the same period. Hopefully some family member of each departed person can be present at this ceremony to pray for their relative and receive the candle to bring home. For those who cannot have a representative the candle will be sent on to them.

THE SECOND CELEBRATION OF 'DO THIS IN MEMORY' will take place during the 11.30 a.m. Mass in Killasser Church on this Sunday 19th October. This year there are eleven children preparing along with their parents, family members and the worshipping community to celebrate First Confessions and First Communion.
