KILLASSER/CALLOW PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MISSION STATEMENT

'We seek to become a more welcoming community where God's message of faith, hope and love is experienced'

A SENSE OF PERSPECTIVE:

In these times when family tends to live further apart, it is good to meet. Sadly, it is all too often at the time of a death, at their funeral. We comment on it, saying we shouldn't wait for a funeral to bring us together. Then we go our separate ways, until of course the next funeral - or wedding.

Conversations at such times can be a bit bizarre. Everything from property, to the price of things, but precious little about life, living and dying. It is our secret, unnamed fear - that despite all, we will die. In our cash-rich, time-poor generation we have pushed this question to the side. We are reaching a point when we know that while poverty is bad, wealth has its responsibilities. It won't satisfy your spiritual hunger. The rootlessness and lack of meaning at the heart of so much of what we give our time to is spawning a sense of unease and disillusionment. So, let's not be too hard on the disciples of Jesus with their internal 'who is the greatest' power struggle, as they accompany him to Jerusalem and the place of crucifixion. We have all been there.

In Christ, men and women down the centuries have found someone great enough to live for and something worth dying for. Will we?

VISITING THE AMERICAN AMBASSADOR: The Children from 3rd Class upwards in Carramore and Killasser National Schools, their Teachers and a number of Adults have been invited by Mr. James Kenny, American Ambassador to Ireland, to visit his residence in the Phoenix Park, Dublin on Tuesday next 26th September. We are most grateful for this invitation and everyone is looking forward to meeting him again. Mr. Kenny visited Killasser last September, where his Great Grandfather emigrated from in 1907. Sincere thanks in particular to Tom Hennigan who has been very much at the centre of the organisation of this visit. Those travelling will also visit the Dáil and the National Museum as well as seeing other important historical landmarks along the way. Wishing everyone an enjoyable day and a safe journey.

THE ALL-IRELAND SENIOR FOOTBALL FINAL - MAYO V KERRY on Sunday last in Croke Park, didn't turn out as we had hoped. Nobody will be more disappointed than the players and their families who have put in such a tremendous effort since the beginning of the year. Naturally every supporter is also bitterly disappointed. Apart from last Sunday we had a wonderful year's football, the highlight being the semi-final win over Dublin. As we have congratulated David Heaney and all the team during the year, we commiserate with them now as they and all of us try to get our spirits up again. Above all, we thank them for the wonderful entertainment they have given us this Summer especially and we hope they can do so again next year.
