The Hurler's Prayer

Grant me O Lord, a hurler's skill, With strength of arm and speed of limb

*Unerring eye for the flying ball
And courage to match whate'er befall*

May my stroke be steady and my aim be true

My actions manly and my misses few

No matter what way the game may go

May I rest in friendship with every foe

When the final whistle for me has blown

And I stand at last before God's judgement throne

May the great referee when he calls my name

Say, you hurled like a man; you played the game.

Ready for more positive in your life?

There are many ways to harness the power of the positive and improve work and home life. A practical one-day workshop at Maryborough House Hotel on 21st September, based on positive psychology, includes identifying key strengths and values; tips to improve relationships and ways to boost motivation. See more at www.rosecommunications.ie/events or call 086 811 4944 or 086 8123900.

10 commandments to get along with people

- (1) Say less than you think. Cultivate a calm voice, how you say it often means the most.
- (2) Make promises sparingly, keep them faithfully.
- (3) Never lose opportunities to say a kind word to or about somebody. Praise work well done.
- (4) Be genuinely interested in others. Let everyone you meet feel that you regard them as if they are the only person that matters in the world.
- (5) Be cheerful as best you can.
- (6) Keep an open mind on all debatable questions. There's a big difference between discussing something and arguing something.
- (7) Don't give in to gossip. It is so destructive.
- (8) Respect the feelings of others.
- (9) Pay no attention to those who think less of you. There are always knockers in this world but know that there are many more people willing to uplift and encourage.
- (10) It won't cost you anything, smile!!
