EAST CLARE HERITAGE – ST CRONANS CHURCH 2010

East Clare Heritage was formed in 1989 as a not for profit voluntary group, with the primary objective of protecting, promoting and ultimately creating access to the vast heritage of East Clare. This group own part of the Westropp Papers and is devoted to promoting the best cultural facets of East Clare. The organisation publishes an annual journal called The Sliabh Aughty: a compendium of articles of significant historical, archaeological and cultural interest.

East Clare Heritage operates within the premises of beautiful church of St Cronan’s at Tuamgraney, Co. Clare. This is a 10th century church, the oldest in uninterrupted use in Europe. It is open to visitors from Monday to Friday from 9.30a.m. to 5.00p.m. Last admissions at 4.00p.m. For group rates, ring 061-921351.

St Cronan’s houses a number of Romanesque artefacts and carving, tourist information with a provision of genealogical services.
